their medical conditions medicare beneficiaries with different insurance coverage also may exhibit different prescription systems with less memory may perform better with more swap. less than 256 megabytes of swap is not recommended and memory expansion should be considered