bright lights would make his eyes water helplessly and send darts of agony into the flesh just behind his eyes

8220;the single most important thing is to very early on get a trajectory of the disease,8221; he adds